

9TH COUNCIL OF ASEAN CHIEF JUSTICES (CACJ) MEETING CLOSING REMARKS

7 OCTOBER 2021

1. As we have come to the end of our meeting, on behalf of the Brunei Judiciary, I would like to express our sincere appreciation to the Supreme Court of Indonesia and members of its organizing committee for their excellent organization of the 9th CACJ meeting. We also wish to thank the CACJ Secretariat, CACJ Liaison Officers and all working group members for their detailed and thorough preparation ahead of today's meeting and for their efforts and hard work in making the 9th CACJ meeting a success.
2. We've had a busy but productive day today and I am encouraged by our fruitful deliberations as it clearly demonstrates the strength in the linkages between our ASEAN judiciaries. Because of our collective commitment and efforts, we have made considerable strides and I look forward to the initiatives proposed for 2022.
3. We hope that our fellow ASEAN friends stay safe and healthy and we look forward to the next CACJ meeting in 2022.

Chief Justice Dato Seri Paduka Steven Chong

Supreme Court of Brunei Darussalam