

Supreme Court of the Philippines

CLOSING REMARKS

On behalf of the Philippine Judiciary, I wish to express our genuine appreciation to our host, the Supreme Court of Indonesia. Our profound gratitude to Chief Justice Muhammad Syarifuddin and the Organizing Committee of the Indonesian Supreme Court for this extremely well prepared 9th CACJ Meeting, despite the limitations of time and distance and the challenges of a virtual meeting.

Allow me to also thank all my counterparts, the ASEAN Chief Justices, and their respective supporting teams for the meaningful contributions to today's discourse and the significant effort expended to demonstrate their commitment to our shared agenda.

This has been a truly engaging and informative exercise. We laud the CACJ Working Groups for formulating and presenting viable and purposive plans aligned with the CACJ's overall Strategic Plan.

The end of this day's activity signals the beginning of the greater task of realizing these plans. For this, I wish everyone good health, strength and resolve. I look forward to next year and the next CACJ meeting for news of the fulfilment of these plans.

Thank you and stay safe everyone.
